

Profile of Shri Ashim Kumar Chakraborty

Shri Ashim Kumar Chakraborty took over the charge as Director (Technical) of CMPDI on 3rd August 2016. Shri Chakraborty graduated in Mining Engineering (in 1982) from Indian School of Mines (ISM), Dhanbad. He obtained MBA Degree (in 1992) from BIT, Mesra, Ranchi.

He started his career in the coal industry from North Searsole Colliery, Kunusturia Area of Eastern Coalfields Limited in the year 1982. He served as Regional Director and General Manager (Project Appraisal Division) in CMPDI before taking over the charge as Director (Technical) of CMPDI.

Shri Chakraborty has vast experience in Project Planning activities. He has to his credit the planning of large capacity mine like Searmal OCP of MCL (40 Million tonnes per annum capacity). He, as General Manager (Project Appraisal Division) contributed for the Roadmap in respect of CIL for production of 1 Billion tonne coal by CIL. He also contributed to the Exercise on UNFC for CIL Blocks. He has been responsible for preparation of Project Reports, Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA)/Environmental Management Plan (EMP), Mining Plans, Mine Closure Plans, Operational Plan and other specialized reports for mines of CIL as well as outside clients.
